AVERAGE MONTHLY TEMPERATURES

FOR CHILDREN

Many hotels have facilities such as children's pool, kids club and playground. The beaches, Lisbon Zoo and the 'Oceanarium' are all great for families.

EATING & DRINKING

Local specialities include sardines, bacalhau (salted cod) or tuna, meat specialities and wonderful rice dishes. Inexpensive, rustic-looking restaurants often serve excellent meals and house wines are generally very good.

NIGHTLIFE

The Bairro Alto district in Lisbon has many restaurants, clubs and bars. Likewise, Estoril and Cascais have a lively nightlife. You can also try your luck at the Famous Casino Estoril.

SHOPPING

Discover everything from traditional shops, antique dealers and flea markets, to modern shopping centres.

CITY BREAKS AND 2 CENTRE HOLIDAYS:

Discover Portugal's capital city of Lisbon with a city break, available all year around! See more of Portugal with a 2 centre holiday combining Lisbon city with Cascais, Estoril or Sintra or Lisbon Coast with the island of Madeira.

LISBON COAST WEDDINGS:

Whether you are looking to have a wedding in the coastal Cascais, on the beach, in the romantic forest of Sintra or glamorous Lisbon city, our wedding planners are on hand to organise your big day.
