CONCORDE HOLIDAYS

THE ISLAND OF ETERNAL SPRING

The Portuguese Island of Madeira is known as the 'The Island of Eternal Spring', because of its mild climate; temperatures rarely fall below 17°C or rise above 26°C giving it pleasant year-round weather and an abundance of lush vegetation. Explore the seaside towns or venture to the countryside and you'll get to know all the magnificence of the dramatic and unspoilt Madeiran landscape.

MADEIRA AT A GLANCE

FUNCHAL:

This small yet bustling cosmopolitan city has a beautiful sea side setting surrounded by mountains and is 30 minutes from the airport. The main tourist services area and where most hotels are located is the Lido, a long strip which runs along the coast and offers a comprehensive selection of restaurants, bars and shopping outlets. This is linked to the historical centre by local bus and can also be easily reached on foot.

SANTA CRUZ:

A small seaside resort 15 minutes from the airport and about 25 minutes from Funchal. The resort has a pretty promenade, a small selection of bars and restaurants, a supermarket and an attractive church square.

PONTA DO SOL:

Located on the south coast and 45 minutes from the airport, this delightfully unspoilt village is blessed with glorious ocean views and more hours of sunshine than anywhere else on island, which gives the village its name.

Package holidays with weekly Thursday flights from the 11th May to the 12th October. Departures from Dublin.
